Social Media Toolkit
National Conference on Medicare, Medicaid & Dual Eligibles

Twitter, Facebook, and LinkedIn are great ways to promote your participation at AHIP’s conferences. Help us spread the word by sharing the content below.

For any conference-related social media posts, please use the associated hashtag #AHIPMMD. This will help us identify your message and retweet it through AHIP’s social accounts so our followers get the chance to see your message.

The event webpage can be found here.

Below are a few sample social posts to help your communications team get started. Please feel free to customize these examples for your own use.

AHIP Education LinkedIn Group
Posting to the AHIP Education LinkedIn group is another great way to help start conversations (e.g., As I plan my presentation on [topic] for #AHIPMMD, what three things keep you up at night?).

We envision this group as a place where speakers and participants can network before and after the conference.

Other Resources
Assets: We’re trying to highlight interesting content by our speakers and their organizations—infographics, articles, blog posts, videos—if you have any assets that are relevant to the issues you may address, please let us know and we can help promote them.

Media: Are there any notable media appearances or quotes we can use in promoting you?

Testimonial: Would you be interested in recording a short video about the two most important things you’d like people to take away from your session, or why you’re excited about the event, which we would promote across all our social channels?
